

DRAFT

Roma, April 1967

Dear Sir:

I have just finished to read your book "Early Americans in Rome" and having been charmed I started translating it into Italian for my own pleasure.

I particularly enjoyed the chapter <sup>"Forever in Rome"</sup> "~~Rome Observed~~", whose translation is attached herewith.

If you have no previous engagements with another translator and you like my sample, I could carry on my work and sell it to you at a reasonable price, printing proof revision included. Otherwise, please tell me where I can have my typescript back.

In any case, I thank you very much for having payed your attention to my proposal.

Sincerely Yours,

.....
